

Owens & Minor Names Timothy P. Connolly as EVP, Operations & Supply Chain-Global Solutions

June 22, 2018

RICHMOND, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jun. 22, 2018-- Owens & Minor Inc. (NYSE: OMI) announced today that it has appointed Timothy P. Connolly as executive vice president, Operations & Supply Chain-Global Solutions, effective June 25, 2018. Connolly will lead the operations of Owens & Minor's distribution and supply chain network.

"Tim's track record of successfully driving financial performance, continuous improvement, and standardization across highly respected healthcare, wholesale and consumer product companies, uniquely qualifies him to hit the ground running. Tim's strong leadership capabilities combined with his deep experience in operations and distribution will be crucial to our next phase as we continue to grow and expand in the U.S. and around the world," said Cody Phipps, chairman, president and chief executive officer of Owens & Minor.

Connolly has more than three decades of related leadership experience, having served in senior-level operations and supply chain roles for medical supply and healthcare services companies Cardinal Health and McKesson Corporation.

Most recently, Connolly served as senior vice president, Operations, for Uline, a multi-billion dollar independent distribution company. Prior to joining Uline, Connolly rose through the executive leadership ranks of Essendant (formerly United Stationers Supply Co.), a $5 billion wholesale distribution company.

Connolly will report directly to Phipps and will serve as a member of the Owens & Minor executive leadership team.
